CONSTRUCTION SITE LITIGATION

Our experience in all areas of construction law is just one reason we have been chosen to represent some of the industry's most well-known owners, developers, insurance companies, general contractors, subcontractors, construction managers, design professionals, suppliers and others involved in construction litigation.

At Goldberg Segalla, our attorneys represent clients before state and federal courts, as well as in administrative proceedings and in arbitration or mediation. We work with clients to develop a litigation strategy early in the case to minimize business disruptions and limit liability exposure. In addition, our attorneys frequently consult with our related construction law practice groups, ensuring that our clients receive comprehensive advice and representation.

We advise clients in all areas of construction site litigation, including:

- Agency disputes
- Changed conditions and change order claims
- Contract and quasi-contract disputes
- Default and termination claims
- Delay and inefficiency claims
- Environmental issues
- Insurance coverage issues
- Labor and employment
- OSHA investigations and claims
- Professional liability
- Property damage claims
- Scope of work disputes
- Toxic molds and other substances
- Warranty claims
