Brian Biggie focuses his practice on complex insurance coverage disputes with significant emphasis on litigation. He has represented and advised multi-national insurance carriers on a range of issues, including priority of coverage; life, health, and disability; underwriting protocols; defenses; and coverage. He has successfully tried insurance coverage actions in both state and federal courts including a recent $4 million insurance fraud claim in the U.S. District Court for the Western District of New York. Brian has prepared and argued appeals across New York State and has been retained to represent insurers in mediations and arbitrations across the country.

Brian is a member of the Defense Research Institute (DRI) and the New York and Erie County Bar Associations and is active in Insurance & Risk Management Services and Professional Liability Committees with USLAW Network, Inc. He is a frequent lecturer and author on topics related to his areas of practice, and he is one of the creators and editors of Goldberg Segalla's Professional Liability Monthly, a newsletter detailing recent decisions involving professional liability claims.

Brian was previously Board President of the Buffalo Alliance for Education and has recently secured the merger of the BAE and the Niagara Frontier Industry Education Council. He is Founder and President of The Little Match Girl Foundation Ltd., a nonprofit organization that focuses on helping children in need by collecting and providing them with school supplies, essential seasonal items, holiday gifts, and other donations in collaboration with their schools and other community organizations.
