Ahmad Felo

ASSOCIATE

EXPERIENCE

Ahmad Felo represents businesses in a wide range of litigation and dispute-resolution matters, including commercial, general liability, products liability, intellectual property, and other complex disputes. He works with clients ranging from small businesses to national companies across a variety of industries, guiding them through litigation in state and federal courts.

Ahmad's experience includes case analysis, drafting pleadings and motions, managing discovery, appearing for hearings and depositions, settlement negotiations, and trial preparation. He is also a registered patent attorney with experience counseling clients on protecting their intellectual property with the U.S. Patent and Trademark Office.

Ahmad approaches each matter with a business-minded perspective, helping clients achieve their objectives efficiently while managing risk and protecting their interests.
