EXPERIENCE

Antonio S. Troese counsels and defends employers, insurers, and third-party administrators throughout Maryland and in Washington, D.C. in all aspects of workers' compensation litigation. A proven litigator with a sterling trial record at the Maryland Workers' Compensation Commission level through the Court of Appeals, Tony also advises businesses on a variety of employment issues, from assisting small businesses on strategies to mitigate liability exposure to preparing codes of ethics, conduct, and integrity for international corporations. He draws on over a decade of experience in private practice.

Tony actively supports a variety of philanthropic organizations in the Baltimore region, including the Chesapeake Bay Foundation, Living Classrooms, Books for International Goodwill, and The Well.
