

Ari D. Berlfein

ASSOCIATE

EXPERIENCE

Ari D. Berlfein concentrates his practice on premises liability, personal injury, negligent security and other civil matters, with an emphasis on representing clients in the retail and hospitality industries ranging from owners and developers of shopping centers to regional and national retailers, hotels and resorts, restaurants, and fitness facilities.

Ari draws on experience serving as a legal intern for a California firm specializing in construction defect law, where he documented on-site collection of evidence, researched and wrote memos addressing legal questions regarding construction defect law, and helped prepare matters for mediation. He also refined his skills preparing cases, researching and drafting briefs, and developing legal strategies while interning with the Marin County District Attorney's office.
