Civil Litigation and Trial

C. Clare Pulvirenti

ASSOCIATE

EXPERIENCE

C. Clare Pulvirenti counsels and defends clients in a variety of civil litigation matters, including environmental, employment and labor, personal injury, and commercial disputes. She handles all phases of litigation from referral through resolution, developing defense strategies, conducting witness and expert depositions, and representing clients at hearings, trials, and mediations. Years of litigation experience have given Clare a broad perspective on resolving complex cases. She partners closely with clients to understand their goals, provide practical, results-oriented counsel, and proactive communication throughout the life of a matter. Clare's scientific background also enables her to work closely with expert witnesses and allows her to bring unique technical expertise to her practice.
