Workers' Compensation

EXPERIENCE

Dana M. Gayeski focuses her practice on defending and counseling insurers, self-insured employers, and third-party administrators regarding complex workers' compensation claims. She has represented both public entities and private companies from the inception of a workers' compensation claim through resolution, including conferencing of matters, cross-examination of witnesses, and trials.

Before going into private practice, Dana gained extensive courtroom experience as an assistant prosecutor in the Juvenile and Domestic Violence and in the Special Victims Unit of the Cumberland County Prosecutor's Office. She also served as a law clerk in the Superior Court of New Jersey, and participated in an academic clerkship the U.S. Court of Appeals for the Third Circuit through Temple Law's Federal Judicial Clerkship Clinical Honors Program.
