Daniel G. Nevarez

SPECIAL COUNSEL

EXPERIENCE

Daniel G. Nevarez is a Certified Authority on Workers' Compensation who focuses his practice on counseling and defending employers, insurers, and third-party administrators before the California Workers' Compensation Board and other venues. Dan collaborates with his clients to provide case analysis and recommendations, and proactively identifies exposure and risk in a timely manner. He handles every stage of the claims process from referral through closure, including research and fact investigation, witness and expert depositions, hearings, trials and appeals.

In addition to handling workers' compensation defense for one of the leading international property casualty insurers for more than five years, Dan also has extensive experience as an executive claims and risk management consultant.
