

Diana H. Goodwin

PARTNER

EXPERIENCE

Diana H. Goodwin dedicates her practice to representing clients in worker's compensation claims, counseling and defending employers, insurance carriers, and third-party administrators. She handles every stage of the workers' compensation process from inception through resolution, including developing legal strategy for discovery, investigation, conferences and trials; analyzing complex medical records and diagnostics; and drafting pleadings, motions, and briefs. Diana also has experience negotiating favorable settlement agreements on behalf of her clients.

Diana began her legal career in plaintiff-side civil litigation, primarily regarding land use, family law, and matters under the Fair Credit Reporting Act and the Fair Debt Collection Practices act.
