EXPERIENCE

Evan B. King focuses his practice on representing employers, insurers, and third-party administrators in all stages of workers' compensation litigation throughout the state of North Carolina. Evan approaches each claim with the client's preferences and established guidelines in mind, producing a detailed evaluation including analysis of the potential exposure and applicable defenses, so that he can collaborate with the client on determining the appropriate strategic plan of action. He draws on a number of years of experience in workers' compensation defense as well as family law.
