EXPERIENCE

Ghina Gharaibeh concentrates her practice on representing clients in workers' compensation matters. She represents employers, insurers, and third-party administrators in a variety of workers' compensation claims throughout New Jersey. Ghina draws from her experience of more than five years on the Workers' Compensation team at Goldberg Segalla, where she worked full time while attending Rutgers Law School, most recently as a paralegal handling medical discovery and treatment activity, including requesting discovery and setting up medical evaluations.
