Civil Litigation and Trial

Grace Khoury

ASSOCIATE

EXPERIENCE

Grace Khoury concentrates her practice on counseling and defending clients in a range of civil litigation matters, including commercial disputes, landlord-tenant issues, personal injury claims, and labor and employment cases. She supports matters from inception through resolution, handling tasks such as drafting and responding to pleadings and discovery, preparing procedural and dispositive motions, conducting and defending depositions, and appearing in court for preliminary and settlement conferences.

Before joining Goldberg Segalla, Grace represented clients in insurance defense litigation. She also gained practical experience through a law firm internship while earning her J.D. from the Elisabeth Haub School of Law at Pace University. There, she drafted and revised contracts and employment agreements, assisted with due diligence in physician practice acquisitions, and updated corporate compliance policies and procedures to reflect changes in legislation.
