Workers' Compensation

Grace Paulson

ASSOCIATE

EXPERIENCE

Grace Paulson represents employers, insurers, and third-party administrators in workers' compensation matters throughout Illinois. She is involved in all stages of the claims process from inception through resolution, including analyzing claim files, reviewing medical records, conducting discovery, preparing motions and petitions, and assisting with depositions, hearings, and settlement negotiations.

Prior to joining Goldberg Segalla as an associate, Grace served as a law clerk with the firm's workers' compensation team. She also gained experience as a law clerk with a Chicago family law firm, where she drafted pleadings, motions, and discovery materials and assisted with trial preparation. During law school, Grace served as a guardian ad litem through the Loyola Community Law Center Clinic, conducting investigations, interviewing clients and witnesses, and advocating before the court in contested guardianship matters. She also participated in Loyola's Advanced Mediation Practicum, mediating employment discrimination and retaliation cases.
