EXPERIENCE

Henri Marcel is a seasoned trial attorney with deep experience in civil litigation, concentrating on transportation claims, insurance coverage disputes, and professional liability defense. Over a decades—long career, Henri has earned recognition for his strategic and effective advocacy—particularly in motor vehicle litigation involving cars, trucks, motorcycles, recreational vehicles, and related coverage issues such as first-party benefits, property damage, and uninsured/underinsured motorist claims.

Henri is frequently sought after by insurers for his skill in handling declaratory judgment actions, especially those involving complex insurance coverage and allegations of bad faith. He has also spent more than 25 years defending professionals against errors and omissions claims, representing architects, engineers, real estate agents, inspectors, insurance brokers, CPAs, investment advisors, and other industry practitioners across Pennsylvania and New Jersey.

Known for his thoughtful approach and tenacious representation, Henri provides clients with practical legal solutions backed by years of courtroom experience.
