EXPERIENCE

Jennie Sanchez is a highly accomplished workers' compensation attorney who advises and defends employers, insurance carriers, and third?party administrators throughout Pennsylvania. She manages each claim from initial assessment through final resolution, evaluating case merits, advising clients on strategic options, and skillfully litigating, negotiating, or settling matters to achieve efficient and cost?effective outcomes. Jennie is known for her strong analytical abilities and her proficiency in legal research, case and litigation management, motion and pleading preparation, and third?party negotiations.

With six years of prior experience representing workers' compensation claimants, Jennie brings valuable insight into claimant strategy, tactics, and case dynamics. She is adept at identifying red flags that may indicate fraudulent activity and understanding the motivations and vulnerabilities that can shape the course of a claim. This dual perspective enables her to anticipate opposing positions, streamline the resolution process, reduce costs, and deliver an effective defense against even the most complex claims.
