

John M. Rott

ASSOCIATE

EXPERIENCE

John M. Rott concentrates his practice on the unique legal needs of businesses in the retail and hospitality industries, providing counsel and representation in premises liability, corporate disputes, personal injury, product liability, complex litigation, and employment and labor matters. John manages all aspects of litigation, from developing defense strategy to large-scale discovery efforts, negotiating settlement agreements, handling mediation, and advocating for clients at trial. In addition to his litigation practice, John also provides contract and transactional support to local, regional and national retailers, hotels and resorts, fitness centers, and other clients.
