PRACTICES

Civil Litigation and Trial

Joshua P. Joy

SPECIAL COUNSEL

EXPERIENCE

Joshua P. Joy is an experienced civil litigator who represents businesses, insurers, and other clients in a wide range of liability and commercial disputes. His practice encompasses general liability matters, with particular focus on transportation and trucking litigation, product liability and professional liability claims, and bankruptcy and creditors' rights matters. This breadth of experience gives him a keen sense of the legal and business issues that shape each case. Joshua handles matters from initial investigation and case assessment through resolution, and he has secured favorable results for clients in arbitration, mediation, and bench trials, while also supporting trial teams before juries.
