Katarina P. Goberdhan

ASSOCIATE

EXPERIENCE

Katarina P. Goberdhan concentrates her practice on a range of civil litigation matters with a focus on the retail and hospitality sector. She works with regional and national retailers, hotel and resort operators, restaurants, shopping centers, and fitness facilities in matters involving premises liability, negligent security, personal injury, and general liability. Katarina is involved in all aspects of case handling, supporting clients through each stage of litigation with a practical, detail-oriented approach.

Katarina draws from hands-on experience managing medical malpractice defense matters, overseeing cases from initial pleadings through trial preparation. She has conducted depositions, appeared regularly in court for conferences and motion practice, and performed in-depth analysis of medical records and legal issues to assess liability and shape defense strategy. Katarina has significant experience drafting pleadings, motions, and reports to carriers, as well as preparing detailed summaries of discovery and case developments. Her background also includes an internship with the Nassau County District Attorney's Office, where she assisted in trial preparation, and prior work as a law clerk supporting general liability and medical malpractice matters, including drafting litigation documents and participating in site inspections alongside attorneys and expert witnesses.
