EXPERIENCE

Kevin P. Sullivan focuses his practice on complex insurance coverage issues. Kevin has substantial experience advising insurers on insurance coverage and claims-handling issues in state and federal courts, as well as in alternative dispute resolution forums. His practice also includes litigating first-party and third-party disputes arising from multiple lines of insurance, including property, general liability, professional liability, and excess liability policies.

Following law school, Kevin was a law clerk with the Hon. Rosemarie Williams in New Jersey Superior Court, Civil Law Division.

EXPERIENCE HIGHLIGHTS

Insurance Coverage

Kevin regularly consults with insurer clients on a broad range of insurance coverage issues. He has handled complex first-party, third-party, and extra-contractual claims arising under multiple lines of insurance, including general, professional and cyber liability. Kevin represents insurer clients in state and federal court litigation, as well as in alternative dispute resolution proceedings. In all of his dealings, Kevin prioritizes putting the interests of his clients first and providing excellent client service.
