Civil Litigation and Trial

Mary A. Bolen

ASSOCIATE

EXPERIENCE

Mary A. Bolen represents clients in a broad range of civil litigation matters, with a practice focused on defending general liability and corporate disputes. She handles matters involving negligence, personal injury, product liability, and professional liability, and brings a practical, business-minded perspective to each stage of the litigation process. With more than five years of experience, Mary is deeply involved in case development from initial investigation through resolution. She routinely manages discovery and fact development, conducts depositions of fact and expert witnesses, and drafts motions, pleadings, and other court submissions. She also plays a key role in pre-litigation negotiations and mediations, working to position matters for efficient and strategic resolution.

In addition to her litigation work, Mary has experience supporting commercial transactions for a Fortune 100 company, giving her added insight into the operational and risk considerations that shape her clients' legal strategies. She is known for her thorough preparation, attention to detail, and steady approach in navigating complex disputes.
