Matthew G. Miller

PARTNER

EXPERIENCE

Matthew G. Miller is a highly experienced trial attorney whose practice focuses on product liability, high-exposure matters, and construction litigation. He defends a wide range of clients in product liability claims, with in-depth knowledge spanning industrial equipment, automotive components, athletic equipment, food safety issues, and retail products.

Matthew frequently represents excess insurance carriers in high-value cases involving significant exposure, providing both trial and appellate representation. In addition, he defends general contractors, subcontractors, and property owners in high-exposure New York State Labor Law matters.

Matthew also has extensive experience handling complex general liability claims involving major municipalities. He has served as counsel of choice for a New York public benefits corporation and public authority.

In every case, Matthew draws on his background as a prosecutor in the Brooklyn District Attorney's Office, where he brought numerous felony cases to trial. He secured indictments before grand juries for a wide range of crimes, including arson, attempted murder, burglary, grand larceny, weapons possession, and rape. He also conducted multiple homicide investigations and assisted in presenting those cases to grand juries.
