EXPERIENCE

Rosa D. Forrester is a seasoned litigator with a robust practice focused on the defense and counseling of high-end retailers, commercial property managers, landowners, insurers, construction contractors, and security service providers. She has extensive experience handling a broad spectrum of liability claims, including those involving premises defense, personal injury, property damage, auto negligence, construction defects, and municipal and fire code violations.

Rosa represents clients across various industries, including retail and hospitality, construction, and private security, and she regularly defends clients through complex litigation matters involving leasing disputes, risk transfer issues, and damages evaluations. She manages cases from inception through resolution and is well-versed in all phases of litigation. Rosa has significant oral argument experience in both New Jersey and New York courts. She is also admitted to federal practice in the District of New Jersey.

Earlier in her career, Rosa served as a judicial law clerk to the late Hon. James G. Troiano in the Superior Court of New Jersey, where she assisted in matters involving matrimonial, domestic violence, and juvenile delinquency law.
