Ryan P. Thompson

ASSOCIATE

EXPERIENCE

Ryan P. Thompson concentrates his practice on professional liability matters, counseling and defending businesses, corporate officers, health care practitioners, and a variety of other professionals in matters alleging errors and omissions. Ryan has represented physicians, healthcare facilities, public entities and medical providers in medical malpractice claims, leading comprehensive discovery processes, developing legal analysis and defense strategy, and representing clients at court conferences.

Before joining private practice, Ryan served as assistant district attorney in the Bronx County District Attorney's Office, where he was appointed one of two specialists to lead cases involving motor vehicles, including matters of vehicle theft, serious physical injuries related to motor vehicle accidents, and individuals driving while intoxicated. While attending law school, he served as a legal extern for the Hon. Therese Wiley Dancks of the U.S. District Court for the Northern District of New York, where he conducted legal research on complex matters, preparing briefs and memoranda.
