PRACTICES

Civil Litigation and Trial

Sara Nazem

ASSOCIATE

EXPERIENCE

Sara Nazem concentrates her practice on civil litigation matters across a variety of liability claims, including personal injury, premises liability, employment disputes, negligent security, and general liability. She is involved in all aspects of the litigation process, ranging from discovery and investigation to depositions and court appearances, motion practice, and trials.

While attending New York Law School, Sara assisted in preparations for litigation and mediation, including matters of product liability, construction litigation, transportation and trucking, municipal defense, and premises liability while serving as a legal intern and, later, as a paralegal. Her experience includes conducting in-depth research, interviewing clients, preparing pre- and post-mediation documents, and drafting memorandums, pleadings, motions, and client correspondence.
