

Siya Saggi

ASSOCIATE

EXPERIENCE

Siya Saggi is dedicated to advising and defending government contractors and their insurance carriers in complex claims under the Defense Base Act (DBA), which establishes workers' compensation coverage for civilian employees worldwide. She represents clients before judicial and administrative tribunals of the U.S. Department of Labor.

Siya is experienced with workers' compensation litigation, having previously represented large employers, insurance carriers and third-party administrators in workers' compensation hearings, depositions, and trials. She advised clients on defense strategies, drafted appeals, and handled direct and cross examinations.
