EXPERIENCE

Stephanie A. Eustaquio is a seasoned workers' compensation attorney with more than 20 years of experience representing employers, insurers, and third-party administrators throughout California. Having spent a significant portion of her career working directly for an insurance carrier, she offers clients a practical understanding of claim management, litigation strategy, and cost-effective resolution. Steph's practice encompasses the defense of claims from initial evaluation through resolution, including discovery, medical expert depositions, hearings, settlement negotiations, and trials. She regularly appears before the California Workers' Compensation Appeals Board.
