Stephen R. Stimmler

ASSOCIATE

EXPERIENCE

Stephen R. Stimmler is a courtroom-focused litigator who advocates for businesses in a wide range of civil disputes across New York. He represents corporate clients and small businesses in matters involving premises liability, personal injury, labor law, and commercial litigation, bringing a confident and practical approach to advocacy. A strategic negotiator, Stephen works closely with clients to resolve disputes efficiently, frequently achieving favorable settlements while preparing each case with trial-readiness in mind.

Over the course of his practice, Stephen has made more than 500 appearances in courts throughout New York – both in person and virtually – handling settlement conferences, status conferences, and motion arguments. His litigation experience includes conducting depositions, developing case strategy, and drafting and arguing dispositive motions. Stephen has secured multiple summary judgment victories on behalf of his clients. He also leverages strong investigative and due diligence skills to assess liability early and position cases for favorable outcomes.
