Zachary VanOrman

PARTNER

EXPERIENCE

Zachary VanOrman counsels and defends businesses, institutions and professionals in a variety of general liability and professional liability matters, including complex medical malpractice, personal injury and wrongful death cases. Zack is skilled at assessing the risks and benefits of settlement versus trial and effectively advocating for the best possible outcome for the client. With a deep understanding of medical procedures, terminology and regulations, Zack excels at identifying and working with medical experts to evaluate cases, prepare defenses and testify in court.

While attending the University of Dayton School of Law, Zack worked as a licensed intern at the school's Criminal Legal Clinic, where he handled discovery and filing, determined legal strategy, made court appearances and negotiated plea deals on cases involving domestic violence, assault and battery, driving with an open container, and other misdemeanors.
