GOLDBERG SEGALLA OPENS RALEIGH OFFICE, ANSWERING GROWING DEMAND IN SOUTH ATLANTIC

Goldberg Segalla has opened the doors of a new office in Raleigh, North Carolina, answering growing demand from clients throughout the South Atlantic region. The Raleigh office is the firm's second in the state, following the Greensboro office that opened in 2015.

Goldberg Segalla's Raleigh office is home to partners Leann A. Gerlach, Ben S. Greenberg, and Gregory S. Horner, and associates Michael A. Goode, Alexandra Kensinger, and Amy C. Pagani. Together, these attorneys represent a wide range of clients in North Carolina and beyond, including major retail and grocery chains, industrial and consumer products manufacturers, construction companies, hospitality brands, staffing agencies, medical facilities, governmental entities, and more. The office is also a key hub of the firm's growing Trucking Practice Group, led here by Ben S. Greenberg.
