PRACTICE AREAS

Workers' Compensation

Donna Lineberry focuses her practice on representing insurers, employers, and third-party administrators in a variety of workers' compensation claims. She counsels and defends clients in all stages of workers' compensation litigation, from intake to trial and appeal. She draws on experience serving as a certified public accountant, where she spent nearly a decade assisting public- and private-sector clients in matters relating to business, audits, accounting, taxes, and management.

Donna received her bachelor's in Business Administration from the University of North Carolina at Greensboro before going on to earn her Juris Doctor at Chapman University School of Law.
